An Extraordinary Sale of Carpets.

One of the Largest Wholesale Houses in the World Recently Notified Us That They Had Decided To Drop Carpets from Their Business.

We gladly bought immense quantities. The incentive is easily found in the quotations that we make public today.

This sale should, and doubtless will, minimize all former records. No wide-awake furnisher of a home or hotel can afford to ignore the claims of such offerings upon their attention. The qualities are unrivalled—more superb or more serviceable Carpets cannot be had. And the style—that's an important feature—are squarely up to the most exclusive and artistic standards. We wouldn't have touched them were they antique or passe. Prices are the completing magnets—less than manufacturer's wholesale rates.

Finest Royal Wilton Carpets, products of best makers, regular price $2.75 to $3.50; special at.....	1.49

There will be many rooms to measure and many Carpets to match, sew and tack down before the sale passes its initial day. No store's regular organization can properly handle promptly the multiplied demands of such a movement. Therefore, we nudge you with the trite, homely reminder: "First come, first served."

Cotton Novelties.

Keep a close, vigilant eye on these creamy Cottons. They are the soft, shimmering, hefty Cottons of Autumn—so different from the filmy, limpsy, ethereal summery weaves. They suggest Women's Suits and Waists and Men's Vests.

Four Styles at 49c.—Five to seven color-effects of each—boldly raised bars, faint facet forms, rippled checker-board designs, dim stripes—tan, Nile, pink, delicate blue, navy, biscuit and black tossed up on silky white grounds.

Four Styles at 69c.—Forty distinct color-combinations—bits of tints wrought into points and dots, unobtrusive curvy-curve, dainty honey-comb weaves, prim, quaint specks, curious little breezy, zig-zag, higgledy-piggledy dashes in charming color mixes.

The Basket Repps are extra highly merized, and have already scored a large success, 74c.

Oblique lines, tinted diamond figures woven within raised white borders; two-toned pupil-polla dots embroidered on plain mottie and pebble grounds, or nestled at the right angle of bisecting colored bars, and various pretty embroidered marcelasse figures—88c.

Imported Flax Velour—eleven colors to choose from, 50 inches wide, worth $2.25 a yard; our price..... 98c

Verona Velour—all the new colors, $1.00 quality at 69c—27 in. $2.25 quality at $1.49—50 in. $2.75 quality at $1.98—50 in.

Reversible Tapestry Couch Covers, finished with heavy knotted fringe, 60 inches wide.

$4.50 quality at $3.98
$6.00 quality at $4.74
$7.50 quality at $5.74

Tapestry Table Covers, floral and Oriental designs, 2x2 yards, value $3.75; our price $2.74.

purse amounting to $100,000. This gift the Archbishop will devote to charity, the money to be used in the interest of the New St. Vincent's Orphan Home, at Twentieth and Race streets.

E. GOULD TO BE LIPTON'S GUEST.

Will Go on the Erin to West Point—Earl and Lady Shaftesbury to Visit Him.

ARLISLEY, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Edwin Gould entertained eighteen members of the Knickerbocker Yacht Club on his estate at Arlisle today. The yachtmen spent Sunday night in tents which they erected on Mr. Gould's dock, and to-day they had canoe races, tilting tournaments and other aquatic sports. To-night Mr. Gould took the yachtmen to their clubhouse on his steam yacht Alben.

On Tuesday, when Sir Thomas Lipton sails on his yacht Erin to West Point, he will stop at Arlisle Casino to take on board a select party of guests, among them being Gen. Corbin, Mr. and Mrs. William Usher Parsons and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gould. On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Gould will show, exhibitions of fancy cake and bread baking, industrial, agricultural and live stock exhibits, a minstrel show and a German "Fest" ball.

Zibelines Are At Their Zenith.

Luxurious, sumptuous, glistening Zibelines zone the Dress Goods sphere. Their lustrous folds—velvet-soft—a-twinkle with silky snarls of drifting hairs, are the fabric-jewels of royal Autumn.

The arbiters of Fashion from Paris to New York have given them precedence. They bear the seal of highest favor right richly.

Of course, we knew the set of the style-winds in advance, and had been gathering Zibelines zealously long before the news broke broadly and intensified the demand beyond all bounds of immediate supply.

Hints of the brilliant stuffs—as they are rallying in trade-array at Macy's:

Zibelines—novel block checks—seven of the most popular shades—52 inches wide—$1.24.

Zibelines—the camel's-hair brood—Oxford and silver gray, brown, olive and cardinal—50 in.—$1.49.

CORTELYOU CLUB FAIR OPENS.

Young Women Will Do Stunts on Horseback—Secretary Cortelyou to Attend.

The Cortelyou Club opened an old-fashioned country fair at its grounds in Flatbush yesterday afternoon. It will continue through the week. Over an acre of ground is covered with tents and booths. It was expected that Secretary George B. Cortelyou of the Department of Commerce and Labor would be present yesterday afternoon to open the fair, but he was detained and sent word that he would be present to-day. He will be the guest of Henry A. Meyer, the president of the club, during his sojourn in Flatbush.

To-day will be National Guard day, and members of the National Guard and delegates from the various Grand Army posts will be present in uniform. Mrs. Alfred De Lasser, Miss Alice Praeger and Miss Mignon McAvoy, who have been practicing horsemanship, will do some clever riding at the Wild West show which is part of the fair. Some of the women tell fortunes in the gypsy camp, and there are any number of attractions, including a prize beauty show
